

Work Environment policy

Nolato Polymer offers all employees a good working environment without discrimination, mental or physical ill health or risks, which we achieve through our Systematic Work Environment Work under continuous improvement, which is driven by the commitment of each employee and close cooperation between safety representatives and representatives in the safety committee.

Policy, procedures, safety rounds, risk assessments, risk identifications, employee interviews and employee surveys are parts of our work to create a well functioning and pleasant workplace.

Quality & Environment
Manager

Annelie Sjö
2025-03-03

